Martell VS

320.-/Glass

Martell VS is a great cognac created from grapes harvested in the areas of the Cognac region, which is double distilled exclusively clear and without sediments. Thanks to this, it acquires extreme finesse, which is the hallmark of the Martell style. It has been produced according to the traditional recipe for over 150 years and is also one of the drinks that are considered the main inspiration and the pinnacle of the craft of cognac production.

Martell VSOP

450.-/Glass

Martell VSOP is an authentic expression of the Martell style. The House perpetuates an uncompromising savoir-faire by ageing its eaux-de-vie exclusively in barrels of fine-grained oak. This specificity encourages the development of refined aromas, exemplified by the lusciously fruity notes of Martell VSOP.

Martell Cordon Bleu

990.-/Glass

A legendary taste recognized by some of the most iconic personalities of the 20th century and the most discerning connoisseurs, a major reference among contemporary cognacs. An extraordinarily complex blend of more than a hundred eaux-de-vie, true to its original style since 1912. The emblem of Martell organoleptic style through the dominance of the Borderies crus, the most exclusive growth of the Cognac area. Floral aromas and aromatic richness, resulting in a highly pleasurable taste.

Martell XO

1,090.-/Glass

Martell XO Cognac is a premium quality cognac that is known for its complexity, depth, and smoothness. It is made using a blend of eaux-de-vie (distilled wine) that have been aged for between 10 and 25 years, giving it a rich and nuanced flavor profile. The cognac is produced by the iconic French cognac house, Martell, which has been crafting high-quality cognacs for over 300 years. It is a blend of more than 150 different eaux-de-vie, each one carefully selected and blended by the master blender to create a cognac that is greater than the sum of its parts.
